Our Story

Belem Bakery was established in the 1970s and has since expanded from a modest family-run business to become one of Johannesburg's most well-known Portuguese bakeries. Each item is made by hand using age-old recipes that have been handed down through the generations.

John Lourenço became a silent partner in 2001, and Shaun De Carvalho contributed his skills in hospitality to the group in the 2010s. The Belém Café and Restaurant in Glenanda opened as a result, and catering and wholesale services were added.
